- Only a successful bidder has the opportunity to purchase Kern County assets. If the successful bidder defaults, under Californian State Law, Kern County cannot resort to the second highest bidder. The bidder, any company the bidder has interest in, or any agent acting on their behalf will be barred from registering and bidding at all future tax defaulted property sales in Kern County for the next five (5) years.
- The sale of these properties should not, in any way, be equated to real estate sales by licensed salesmen, brokers and realtors. The County Treasurer-Tax Collector cannot guarantee the condition of the property nor assume any responsibility for conformance to codes, permits or zoning ordinances. You should inspect the property before investing. The burden is on the purchaser to thoroughly research, before the sale, any matters relevant to his or her decision to purchase, rather than on the county, whose sole interest is the recovery of back taxes.

- It is recommended that bidders consult with the Zoning Department of any city within which a particular parcel lies. Tax-defaulted property will be sold on an "as is" basis.
- Should the successful purchaser desire a survey of the property, it will be at the purchaser's own initiative and expense. No warranty is made by the County, either expressed or implied, relative to the usability, the ground location, or property lines of the properties. The exact location, desirability, and usefulness of the properties must be determined by the prospective purchaser.
- The County assumes no liability for any other possible liens, encumbrances or easements, recorded or not recorded. When property is sold at public auction on which the IRS holds a tax lien, the United States has the right of redemption for 120 days from the date of such sale (26 USC Sec. 3712(g) and 7425(d)). The IRS will pay the actual amount paid for the property by the bidder, plus interest at 6% per annum from the date of sale, plus the expenses of sale that exceed any income received from the property.
- STATE LAW! - A PROPERTY OWNER CANNOT BUY THEIR OWN PROPERTY AT A TAX SALE FOR LESS THAN THE TAXES OWED! - Senate Bill 812 changed state law effective January 1, 2018 by adding subdivision (d) to Section 3698.5 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. Subdivision (d) states the following: The current owner of tax-defaulted property subject to sale under this chapter shall not purchase that property, directly or indirectly, at a price below the minimum price determined pursuant to subdivision (a). No deed shall be transferred to the purchaser if the property is purchased, directly or indirectly, by the current owner for lower than the minimum price determined pursuant to subdivision (a)."
